The chief topic of discussion in the showers without fear of getting wet Fire Department during the past week from some leak above. was the proposition advanced by Commissioner Macfarland to give the men in the service every fourth day off duty. Chief Belt ordered the captains of the companies to consider the proposition Sweeney went on leave. He will spend and report to him whether it could be a few days at Bluemout, Va. carried out with the force available in each company. The reports were com-pleted Wednesday night and sent into eadquarters there to be considered by the Chief Engineer and the Commis-In general the department feels grateposal. Most of the captains reported in day, favor of the scheme and mapped out to the Chief Engineer assignments of the W. S. Carter, of No. 11, who had been Privates J. Acton, F. M. Dierkoph, handsomely engraved and was the cenday off for each man and at the same restored to health and is on duty again. Wolfe, time leave the company with a full quota to operate the apparatus in case of fire. A few of the captains reported at hand. Some of the houses where details to the theaters and other privileges now granted reduce the number of men to such an extent that the captains reported they could not fully realize the Commissioner's offer without the addition of one or two men to the company. Incidentally to the discussion of the Commissioner's plan was that of making certain changes and giving the men twelve hours off in each twenty-four hours. That is to divide the men into day and night shifts and cancel the days Men in the department are much more in favor of that plan than the one suggested by Commissioner Macfarworked now quite as well as the taking of every fourth day off. Take for example a company of thirteen or fourteen men. Such a company could be the content of the country divided into two shifts of six men for the first case and seven to each shift in the other. The day shift would go on duty, say at 7 o'clock in the morn-The men would come to quarters ners or have them sent to the firehouse and would eat supper after returning iome at night. This would leave the jor officers to let him go back to No. 5. day shift the entire night at home, except in the emergency of a big config-The night shift would go on at 7 o'clock in the evening after having spent all day at home or in recreation, This would do away with the absence of Chicago to spend the period of his leave. a man on his day off and the absence of another through the entire day as the

In the majority of companies this plan could not be worked out satisfactorily, the year through, especially in the annual leave period, without the addition one or two men to each company. The great majority of the firemen, however, would choose the twelve-hour shift to the fourth day off.

Spoiled Flower Garden.

Truck 4 Company is lamenting the destruction of its flower garden. On a vacant lot boside the house they had, planted out some fine flowers and had several beds in the wealth of autumn The lot was about eight feet above grade, and the Baltimore and Railroad Company made a deal with the owner to grade down the lot despite the pleadings of the land. Truck company to wait until a little later in the season, the railroad contractor sent his wagons and graded down the lot, finishing last week.

The owner will allow the company to fix up the lot again and plant new flowers next year. He has also given his furlough last Friday, finishing the the men a statue to help along in the period of leaves at Track 6. decorations, but the company is fearful that just about the time the pansics are blooming next spring some go again for naught.

Wanted to See His Friend.

"Jack," the clever dog of Truck : played a joke on one of the boys last week, that Captain Martin speaks of and children home from several weeks' as out of the ordinary. One of the men placed the dog's basket in his mouth, ing at 30 T street northwest. putting a quarter in it and a note to tobacco dealer on Pennsylvania avenue, asking him to send back a pack-age of smoking tobacco. Truck 6 had an unpleasant experience the other night. The joker was out or order by some kind of a hitch in the electric wires, and the men were called up three times after midnight by the ringing of the gongs when no alarm was sent in. The trouble was located early in the morning by Superintendent Simpson and the mischievous wires made to behave themselves.

No. 9 company is pleased with the work of Superintendent of Repairs Coleman in putting a new roof upon the house. It is now rain proof, and the boys can sleep through early morning
